CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT PERSONNEL

(This revised code is effective from 14th March 2024)

1. Preamble

Albert David Ltd. ("ADL" or "the Company") firmly believes in and has consistently endeavored to practice good corporate governance and has acted as a good corporate citizen all along. The spirit of corporate governance prevailed at ADL and influenced its decisions and policies long before the formal guidelines were introduced and became mandatory. ADL ensures that its control systems are in place, are adequate and are operating effectively.

The Board of Directors ("the Board") frames the policies and codes to be adhered to by the company, the officers and employees in general. The Board adopted the "Code of Conduct for Directors and Senior Management" ("the Code") on 9th February 2015; and the same was revised effective 1st April 2019; and, further revised effective 14th March 2024.

With a view to continuously maintain the spirit and practice of good governance, this Code lays down a set of guidelines to be followed by the Board and the Senior Management Personnel ("SMP") in order to bring transparency, professionalism, accountability and responsibility in their actions and focuses on the broader ethical issues governing the conduct in discharging their respective functions in the Company for realizing the ultimate objective of value addition and value creation.

It is expected that every member of the Board and the Senior Management team will exercise good judgment in compliance with the principles as set out in this Code and they would avoid every circumstance which would violate the spirit of this Code of Conduct.

2. Applicability of the Code

The Code is applicable to each member of the Board of Directors and every Senior Management Personnel of the Company defined and falling within the SMP category from time to time as under:

"Senior Management" or "Senior Management Personnel" ("SMP") shall mean and include all such persons as defined in the Companies Act 2013 and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time, namely:

- a. Personnel of the company who are members of its core management team excluding the Board of Directors
- b. all the members of the management one level below the Chief Executive Officer or Managing Director or Whole Time Director or Manager
- c. the Chief Financial Officer
- d. the Company Secretary
- e. Functional heads (by whatever name called)

3. Code of Conduct for Directors and Senior Management:

Every member of the Board and every SMP of the Company (collectively referred to as "members") shall adhere to and abide by the following guidelines:

A. Statutory Compliances

The members shall adhere to and comply with the provisions of all applicable laws, rules and regulations as well as the Company's internal guidelines, codes and policies framed from time to time. The members shall endeavor to ensure that the officers/employees of the Company are complying with the various statutory compliances efficiently and effectively and proper procedures are being followed in this regard.

B. Honest and Ethical Conduct

The members shall act honestly, objectively and effectively in a fair and transparent manner for advancing the interests of the Company. They must abide by the policies, codes and procedures framed and adopted by the Company and must respect and adhere to ethical and fair business practices. The members shall use due care and diligence in performing their duties and responsibilities attached to their respective office and exercise their powers in good faith for fulfilling their obligations towards the Company and its Stakeholders.

C. Conflict of Interest

The members shall avoid any situation that would lead to or tend to lead to any conflict of interest. Conflict of interest is a situation where personal interest may, in any way, interfere with the interests or benefits of the Company impacting the exercise of independent judgment while discharging one's duties and responsibilities. In case of a situation that involves or appears to involve conflict of interest, the members of the Board of Directors should make a suitable disclosure to the Board forthwith and abstain from participating in any discussion for such decision/transaction. The members are expected not to derive any improper personal benefit or a benefit to any of their relatives from the company, including by making or influencing decision relating to any transaction of the company.

D. Confidentiality of Information

"Confidentiality of information" includes all such information which has not been authorized by the management for public dissemination. This includes information on trade, trade secrets, confidential and privileged information regarding customers, employees, information relating to financial results, dividends, mergers and acquisitions, stock splits and divestitures; non-public information about discussions and deliberations relating to business issues and decisions between and among employees, officers and Directors in formal meetings or otherwise, and will include all such information which is not available in the public domain at that point of time.

The Company believes that protection of all confidential information is essential and is committed to protecting business and personal information of confidential nature obtained from clients, associates, and employees. Directors/Senior Management shall ensure that no confidential information is disclosed /misused inadvertently or otherwise.

The members are advised to refer to ADL - Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading and ADL - Policy for Determination of Materiality of Events and Information for Disclosure to Stock Exchanges to have a clear understanding of information which requires confidential treatment.

Directors/Senior Management shall ensure that all confidential information available to them by virtue of their office including Board Meeting papers including Agenda and Minutes etc. that they may hold or peruse is never directly or indirectly released or disclosed to any person or entity or made public.

E. Protection and proper use of Company's resources

The members shall ensure that the assets and resources of the Company are properly, judiciously, and efficiently used for its business purposes and are properly safeguarded. Any unauthorized use of the Company's assets should not be allowed, and appropriate steps should be taken for the same.

F. Other Directorships / Committee Membership

Serving on the Boards of Directors, Committee of Directors, and serving as Chairman of Board Committees of other companies may raise substantial concerns about conflict of interest. Therefore, all Directors and employees must report / disclose such relationships to the ADL Board whenever such relationships are entered into / ceased and/or whenever there is a change and / or on an annual basis.

G. Gifts and Gratuities

The purpose of business entertainment and gifts in a commercial set up is to create good will and sound working relationships, not to gain unfair advantage with suppliers and customers. No gift or other favors should ever be offered, given, provided or accepted by any Director and employees, or close relative of Director and employees unless it is not a cash gift, and it is consistent with customary business practices cannot be construed as a bribe or payoff and does not violate any law or regulation.

This policy does not bar acceptance of courtesies or invitations to social or sports events which are customary and proper under the circumstances and in keeping with good business ethics so long as no obligation is involved in such acceptance. Any gift which does not satisfy the above criteria should not be accepted and should be returned immediately and be reported to supervisor / reporting authority. If immediate return is not practical, they should be given to the Head of Human Resources or the Compliance Officer for charitable use or such other use as the Company believes appropriate in its sole discretion.

Common sense and moderation should prevail in business entertainment engaged in on behalf of the Company. Director and employees should provide, or accept, business entertainment to or from anyone doing business with the Company only if the entertainment is infrequent, modest, and intended to serve legitimate business goals.

H. Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is illegal under Indian laws and violative of the ADL's policies. Any member against whom charges of sexual harassment are proved will be subjected to disciplinary action, including termination of employment and/or shall be liable to indemnify the company and/or forfeiture of the termination benefits, to the extent of loss suffered by the company on this account.

I. Code for Independent Directors

The Independent Directors of the Company shall abide by the relevant provisions of the Companies Act 2013 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time including applicable Rules, Regulations, Byelaws, Circulars etc. with special reference to Schedule IV of the Companies Act 2013, as amended, i.e. they shall, inter-alia:
